Transit time extension for FedEx shipments outbound from Europe to Uruguay

Effective Monday 8 January, 2024 FedEx Express has extended quoted transit times on all FedEx services outbound from Europe to Uruguay by +1 day.

This adjustment is in response to recent customs regulation revisions, which now require an additional +1 day transit time on all shipments destined for Uruguay.

Temporary service restrictions and extended transit times related to Accessible Dangerous Goods

Accessible Dangerous Goods packages above 32 kg and/or dimensions above 75 cm height and 120 cm width/length will not be accepted temporarily (in and out) of: Finland, Norway, Sweden, Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, Portugal, Hungary and Greece.

Please expect longer transit times for some oversized ADG shipments going to Austria and Slovakia.

Temporary Service Delays in Vanuatu

Effective December 27, 2023, FedEx Express and TNT will experience service delays for all inbound shipments to Vanuatu due to changes made in the customs regulations process in Vanuatu. This has impacted the clearance process, resulting in delays of more than 10 days to retrieve shipments from customs.

We are monitoring the situation closely and hope to resume service as soon as possible.

Information on the Northern Ireland protocol – Windsor Framework

FedEx Express welcomes the announcement regarding the trade between Northern Ireland, Great Britain and the EU, known as the Windsor Framework. Since the announcement in February 2023 FedEx has been working closely with HMRC to consider the implications of the Framework which is to be delivered by the end of September 2024.

These new arrangements for sending parcels from Great Britain to Northern Ireland will be in place from September 30, 2024. At present, customers do not need to change anything and further details will be provided as soon as we have them confirmed by HMRC.

We will continue to closely monitor the detail of the Windsor Framework to ensure our customers are informed throughout should there be any changes to current processes. For more useful information, please visit the following government website.
