

as fast as fast can be

time critical services

fastest around the clock

securely across the world

When every minute matters, TNT's Time Critical Service ensures the fastest delivery via the shortest route. Any size, any weight, anywhere in the world – your urgent shipments are collected on demand and dispatched immediately to your chosen destination.

Delivering door-to-door peace of mind

We know that not everything goes to plan – a production line for a best selling car will stop if a component is not delivered; a life saving medical device that is 1000 miles away from the patient in need; a top-notch financial team advising on the largest takeover in corporate history needs documents delivered to overseas lawyers now!

At TNT, we are experts in urgency. Every minute of everyday, we handle thousands of urgent shipments, from vital medical supplies to important legal documents, ensuring secure and speedy delivery door-to-door.

Dedicated and tailor-made Special Express service offers pick-up and delivery times specified by you. Utilising all modes of transport at our disposal, from motorcycles to aircraft, your shipment is collected immediately and delivered using the fastest and most direct route.

When urgency is measured in minutes and hours our around the clock on demand Sameday service can collect and deliver same day. There are no limitations to the size or weight of your shipment and all large, heavy, or unusual loads can be handled.

What needs to be delivered?
What is it? What size is it? Is it fragile?
Considered dangerous goods?

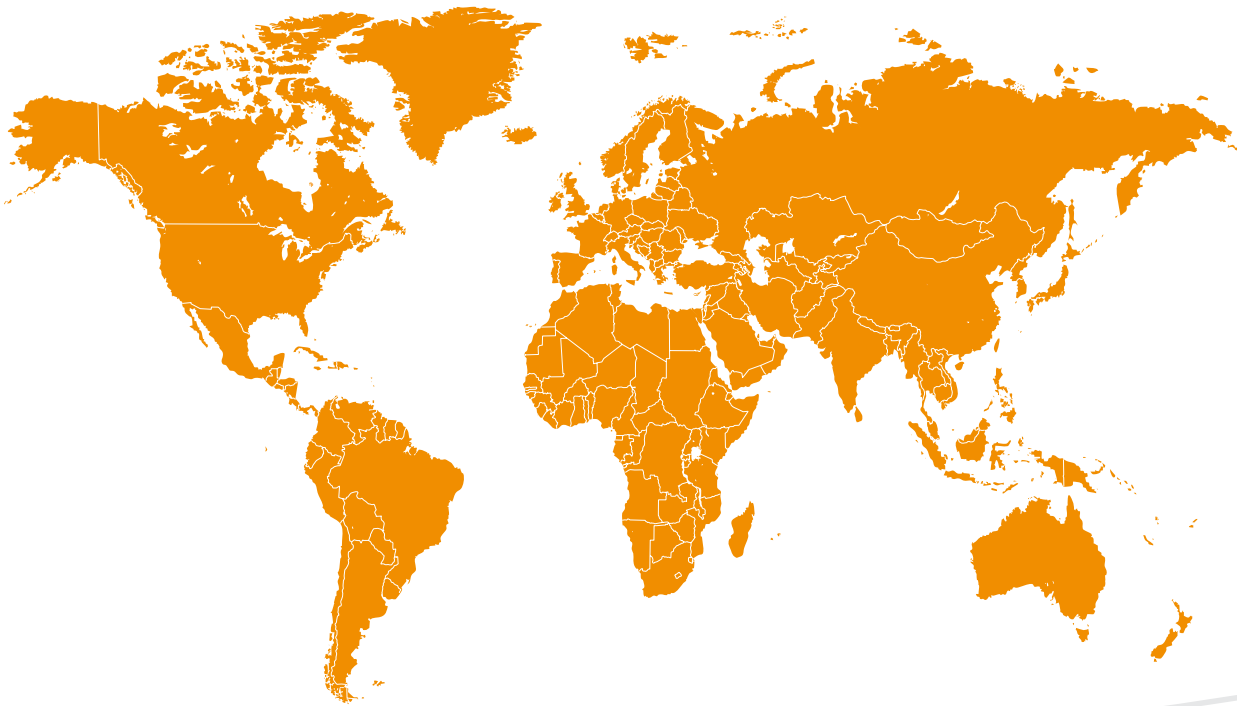

When and where?
Today? Tonight? Specific time delivery?
Return shipment? Personal delivery?
