ExpressMobile

Easy shipping when you're on the move

It's our business to deliver yours

Out of the office

Want to know the status of that vital shipment? Just check it on your mobile phone or handheld device. You can even make shipment requests!

The knowledge you need, whenever you need it

Staying on top of your business often means staying on top of your shipping. So, ExpressMobile makes it easy to access up-to-the-minute tracking information from your mobile phone. You and your customers will always know exactly where you stand with every shipment.

A multi-faceted tool

ExpressMobile requires no special software and the displays are clear and easy to use. It works in a number of ways:

SMS – Just send us your consignment or customer reference number(s) via your short messaging service. We will then send you a message with the latest shipping status. Go to www.tnt.com for information on local sms numbers.

Mobile internet – Track shipments, receive and select price options, request pick-up and transit times. Just go to www.tnt.com and start using this service.

and in control

Email – Check the status of your consignment without having to call or go to the internet. Just send an email to track@tnt.com with your consignment or customer reference number(s). We will then send you an email with the current status of your shipment.

Get up and running now

ExpressMobile is designed to work seamlessly with other electronic services of TNT. And if you have a mobile phone you can start using ExpressMobile now.
