The general terms and conditions of business of TNT Express GmbH (hereinafter: TNT) apply to all orders placed with TNT, irrespective of whether it involves haulage, freight or warehousing business. Including, but not limited to, the delivery of goods, with the exception of exclusivity on the basis of the following agreement. The terms and conditions of business also apply to future contracts, even where there is no repeated reference to the general terms and conditions of TNT. Any agreements that deviate from these general terms and conditions of business must be confirmed in writing by TNT in order to be effective. Drivers are not authorised to issue or receive contractual declarations.

The general terms and conditions of business contain exclusions of and restrictions on liability that TNT and companies contracted by TNT can rely on. TNT therefore makes express reference to taking out adequate transport insurance.

TNT is entitled, but not obliged, to collect the shipping fees from the recipient. The person placing the order is at all times obliged to pay the shipping fees to TNT.

Cash on delivery amounts are only accepted on the basis of a special written agreement. A cash on delivery instruction issued on a case-by-case basis, and which does not comply with this normal requirement, does not oblige TNT to charge cash on delivery.

5. Costs

Handling charges per order are calculated on the basis of our respective valid price lists plus added value tax and transport insurance premiums. The price lists are part of the agreement between TNT and the sender. The agreements also govern pro rata service charges for (i) service charges for all charges, freight, general handling charges, data capture and paper invoices, and these are shown separately on the invoice. Your TNT branch would be happy to send you your agreement and your price list on request.

6. Money-back guarantee

If the agreed transit time is not complied with, the amount of the haulage charge will be determined by the service actually provided. This money-back guarantee does not apply in the case of delivery delays caused by force majeure (e.g. weather conditions, strike, lockout, official restrictions, etc.), missing or incomplete documentation (e.g. incorrectly completed TNT haulage orders, missing or incorrect labelling with TNT stickers depend on the service), subsequent requests by the sender or instructions from the recipient that directly affect the transportation process. Depending on the service, the agreed transit time applies from Monday to Friday and/or Saturday, from the day of receipt.

7. Responsibility for costs

Costs that arise in the recipient refusing to take delivery or for the third and each subsequent delivery attempt to the same address (second attempt is free of charge), as well as in the event of a vehicle re-routing (e.g. due to an incorrect address) will be borne by the person placing the order. If the recipient refuses to take delivery after five business days, the resulting storage costs will also be charged to the person placing the order.

8. Invoices / payment terms

All charges and expenses are immediately due and payable. Financing costs of 6% are always added to the invoice amount, which are deductible from the invoice amount if payment is made within the stated due date. If a new invoice needs to be prepared due to incorrect details in the shipping order or because the recipient of a “freight not prepaid” shipment refuses to pay the shipping charges, TNT will charge a fee of €1.80 net.
